Jam and Justice Application Form

Please fill in this form if you would like to be considered for the Action Research Cooperative (ARC).

Section 1: Details

Name:

Job Title (if relevant):

Description of Current Role/s:

Preferred contact details:
(please provide email address)

Section 2: Motivations

Why do you want to be an ARC participant?

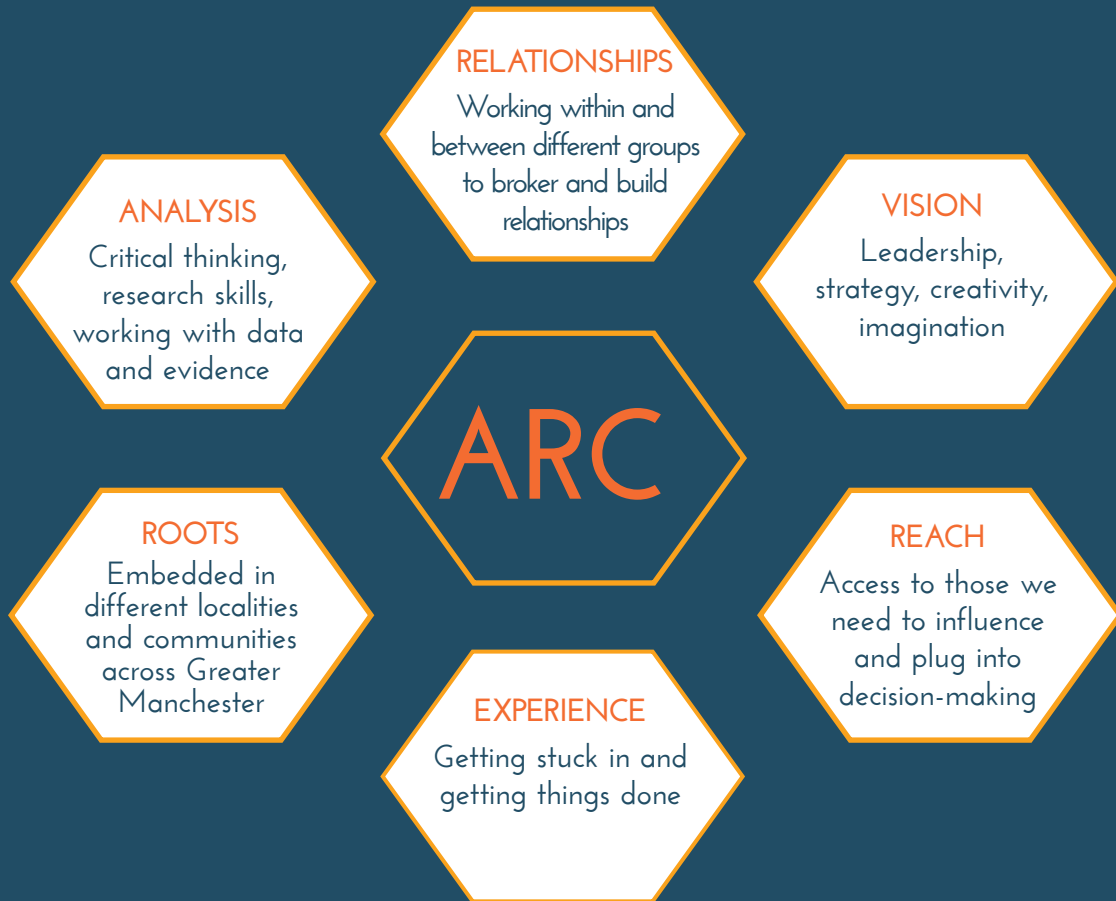

Section 3: Ethos

Jam and Justice is a research project committed to the idea of 'co-production': that means working together as a group and valuing the diverse knowledge and expertise brought by all involved.

Share an example from your own experience of working with people with different backgrounds, noting the challenges you faced and how you overcame them.

Section 4: Contributions

We are looking for a mix of people to apply to join the ARC. We are interested in bringing together people who can help us address our core research questions. Everyone is different and we want to value this diversity of experience and expertise. We would like to recruit individuals who can bring RELATIONSHIPS, VISION, REACH, EXPERIENCE, ROOTS and ANALYSIS to the ARC. We do not expect every individual to excel in all these areas!

Please place the following in order of where you see your own strengths (1 = lowest, 6 = highest)

Relationships Vision Reach Experience Roots Analysis

Summarise how you think you can contribute to the project and what you would hope to achieve.

Mark an 'x' on the map to identify those localities in Greater Manchester where you have roots, reach or relationships. Provide a few words to describe these connections.

Section 5: Training, Support and Commitment

Training and support is provided for all ARC participants, including in research methods and access to knowledge, skills and networks.

All ARC participants will receive a £1000 bursary in recognition of their attendance and participation in a minimum of 10 meetings. In addition, participants will receive £300 for making and researching the ARC, carrying out interviews, site visits and keeping a diary. Travel expenses for site visits will also be provided.

ARC participants will join us in:

Making and researching the Action Research Cooperative - carrying out interviews, site visits and keeping a diary.

Hosting an international gathering to network with other city-regions around the world.

Commissioning/conducting up to ten action research projects into alternative urban governance.

Taking part in a field trip to Scotland to learn and share lessons about devolved governance.

Summarising the research into a forward-looking plan for making devolution matter in Greater Manchester.

Supporting the development of an ARChive of inspirational examples of urban governance from around the world.
